New Issuance

'ilA' Rating Assigned To Bond Issuance Of Up To NIS 400 Mil. N.V.

S&P Maalot hereby assigns its 'ilA' rating to bonds of up to NIS 400 million to be issued by Israel Corporation Ltd. (ilA/Stable) by issuing a new bond series, Series 15. The proceeds will be used for refinancing financial debt and for ongoing operations.

We believe there remains high, albeit moderating, uncertainty about the evolution of the coronavirus pandemic and its economic effects. Vaccine production is ramping up and rollouts are gathering pace around the world. Widespread immunization, which will help pave the way for a return to more normal levels of social and economic activity, looks to be achievable by most developed economies by the end of the third quarter. However, some emerging markets may only be able to achieve widespread immunization by year -end or later. We use these assumptions about vaccine timing in assessing the economic and credit implications associated with the pandemic (see our research on S&P Maalot website as well as on S&P Global Ratings website). As the situation evolves, we will update our assumptions and estimates accordingly.

For additional details about the rating and for additional regulatory requirements, see our rating report dated July 12, 2020.
